

Sonora, Texas is located where the Texas Hill Country meets the rugged Southwest, and is a community with a rich western heritage that can be seen at every turn.

Located at the crossroads of Interstate 10 and Highway 277 makes our community very accessible and convenient for that perfect weekend getaway. Our friendly small town atmosphere and beautiful scenery beckon you to stay in one of our four motels, an RV campground, or a ranch retreat; and eat a big steak or a gourmet sandwich; and visit our unique shops, art gallery, museums and exhibits.

A Texas Main Street City, Sonora is the home of The Caverns of Sonora touted by cave experts as "the most indescribably beautiful cavern in the world. Its beauty cannot be exaggerated, even by Texans".

Within the city limits, you can explore the Eaton Hill Nature Center which features hiking trails, birding, native wildlife & flora, picnic areas, star gazing, geological interest, and Native American History. Eaton Hill is open 24 hours a day, 365 days a year at no charge.

Sonora Downtown Historic Walking Tour is a self-guided tour featuring the Sutton County Courthouse, Miers Home Museum, Old County Jail, Old Santa Fe Depot, the Will Carver Shooting Site, and eleven more points of historic interest. Also located in downtown, you can visit the Veterans of All Wars Exhibit. The Devil's River State Natural Area on the picturesque Devil's River is located south of Sonora off Highway 277.

Major annual events include Sutton County Days and Sonora Outlaw Pro Rodeo, held at the Sutton County Park and Arena Complex each June. The Cinco de Mayo Celebration is held each year on the weekend closest to May 5th.

Sonora is known for one of the oldest and largest game dinners, the Sutton County Game Dinner, which is held at the Sutton County Civic Center on the second Saturday of November for the past 45 years. It features over $50,000 in door prizes.

For more information about our wonderful community and events, call the Sonora Chamber of Commerce Office and Welcome Center at 325-387-2880, or visit www.sonoratexas.org.

